

Please do not weaken the no-call regulations. I strongly do not want to hear from any business I no longer deal with. Those calls would simply be harassment of citizens in their private homes. It's finally safe to answer the phone now - don't send us back to the bad old days again.